

Fate hit me very hard one day.
I cried: "What is my fault?
What have I done? What causes, pray,
This unprovoked assault?"
She paused, then said: "Darned if I know!
I really can't explain!"
And just before she turned to go
She whacked me once again!

HOME FROM GREAT CONVENTION

Banker Handel C. Sharp of the State National Bank returned home yesterday from Richmond, Va., where he went to represent the Kentucky Bankers' Association at the American Banking Association convention this week held there. The world's leading financiers were present and Mr. Sharp had much to do with the magnates from all parts of the country.

It was a great meeting and the ancient capital of the Southern Confederacy hung out the banners of welcome hospitality to the thousands of strangers there.

MRS. EFFIE JACKSON

Who Went Down to Cincinnati Saturday To Visit Her Sister, Died Suddenly Wednesday.

Mrs. Effie Jackson died suddenly Wednesday evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. George J. Miller of Madisonville, Ohio, where she had gone on a visit, leaving here Saturday afternoon. She was in seemingly good health when she retired and her death was a shock to her friends.

She is survived by seven sisters and one brother. Her funeral will take place from the residence of her sister, Mrs. Fannie Miller in West Second street, this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services by Rev. Fielding. Burial in the Maysville Cemetery.

(Tuesday's Enquirer.)

Mrs. Effie Jackson, 50, a widow, of Maysville, Ky., was found dead in bed yesterday morning at the home of relatives at 1801 Jamison avenue, Madisonville. Mrs. Jackson came to Cincinnati several days ago to visit her niece, Cora Porter, who lives at 1801 Jamison avenue. She died of natural causes.

Mr. Elwood Riser is on the sick list with a severe case of tonsillitis at his home in Front street.

Mr. John Hunt is sending from New York frequent additions to his ready-to-wear department—copies of coats and suits he sees worn on Fifth avenue.

BANQUETED

State Grand Chancellor Sherman Am of the K. of P. Lodge Right Royally Entertained Last Night

Delightful Occasion Attended By Large Gathering of Brother Knights, Both From Local and Surrounding Lodges

Not "women, wine and song," but speeches and songs—also "entertainment"—were the nucleus of last night's banquet given by Maysville Limestone Lodge No. 36, K. of P., to the new Grand Chancellor of the State, Sherman Am, a man from the local lodge and one who has most righteously won this honor because he has worked diligently and earnestly for his lodge in every way possible. Last night's glad occasion was a fitting festivity to honor this man who has brought new laurels to his home lodge and his home town.

There was just enough singing, oratory and feasting to fully satisfy the two hundred and fifty gentlemen who assembled at 8:15 p. m. in the spacious main hall of the K. of P. building.

His Honor, Mayor J. Wesley Lee, called the assembly to order and he was very brief and terse in his remarks. He said that there had been four State Grand Chancellors chosen from Maysville and that this was an honor which no other lodge in the State of Kentucky could boast of. He said that as the program was quite lengthy he would limit each speaker to ten minutes, with the exception of Hon. George Carter, Grand Keeper of Records and Seals, "Daddy" Moore, Superintendent of the Pythian Home, and his old schoolmate and friend, Prof. W. T. Berry.

The Girls' Pythian Home Quartet composed of Misses Irene Berkley, Orley Perkins, Bessie Berch and Lola McBlain, accompanied on the piano by Miss Eloise North, a matron in the home, were the first to be introduced and they delighted the assembly with two beautiful selections.

"Be a Booster."

Rev. P. W. Harrop of Latonia was the first speaker on the program and he spoke on the subject of "Be a Booster."

Rev. Harrop, as is his way, was in a happy and witty mood and his first act upon taking the platform was to throw aside the gavel on the table, saying that it was not consistent with the trend of his address. His message was an inspiration to Pythians. He said that everyone was a booster in a limited sense, but that they should always be boosters to an unlimited extent. He said that everyone should boost for Pythianism and what it stood for. He said that there was only one way of putting Pythianism at the top where it belongs and that is by making your motto to be always—"Be a Booster."

"What Kind of a Lodge Would This Lodge Be If Every Member Was Just Like Me."

This was the subject of the toast responded to by Attorney Allan D. Cole. Mr. Cole said that as far as attending lodge was concerned the lodge would be a failure if every member was just like him, he being out of town so much and so busily engaged in his law practice, but that merely attending lodge does not mean that you are a good lodge member. "It is what you get out of the underlying principles of the lodge," he said, "that counts—the things that make you know your duties to each other as fellow lodge members."

"The Growth of Pythianism"

"The Growth of Pythianism" was the toast responded to by Mr. Ben H. Greenlee. Mr. Greenlee, as usual, was earnest and eloquent and soon had the banqueters in touch with his theme. He told of the growth of Pythianism—how it was first started in this country.

ADMITTED TO BAIL

Russell Paul, Young Boy Held on Charge of Murder, Released Under Bond of $2,500.

Yesterday afternoon in the Mason Circuit Court, Russell Paul, the young boy held on the charge of having murdered the infant son belonging to his sister several weeks ago, was admitted to bail until his trial on December 1st, his bond being placed at $2,500.

The case of this young man is one of the saddest affairs that has come to the attention of the people of Maysville for some time and the grounds for his release yesterday were that his mother bore no previous or premeditated malice.

The bond was signed by Thomas A. Davis, John D. Wood, J. T. Kackley, Fred Calhoun, William Byron, John Flanagan, Thomas A. Keith and C. L. Wood.

Mr. John Burwell, local manager of the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co., Thursday purchased from Mr. Fred Calhoun his residence in East Second street.

The Millionaires' Club in the Upper House of the National Congress, has been dwindling slowly for some time, and it will dwindle some more when Senator Bullitt relieves Senator Chauden at Washington March 4th.

It will be interesting to watch the many thousand Kentucky laborers who are out of a job rushing to the polls early on the morning of November 3rd to register their endorsement of the Administration at Washington.

The Democrats promised to enlarge the foreign markets for our products, but we sold foreigners during the first ten months of their tariff law $151,000,000 less than we did under a similar period of the Payne law which they denounced.

The Democratic text book for 1914 under the caption of "Let the Republics Answer," asked "What is your program, if returned to power?" That's easy. We would start a few billions of new idle capital, to courting through the channels of trade; we would start several thousand idle factories to operating on full time; we would put two and a half million idle laborers to work on full time at good wages; we would put ten million hungry people on full rations and make everybody happy. At least, that is what we were doing before you came into power.

A WARLESS "WAR TAX."

Mr. Longworth hit the nail on the head. Levying a war tax when there is no war is a four earl draw, an absolute blind.—Commercial Tribune.

"COME OUT YE LUBBER AND GET LICKED?"

Whether or not evidence is to be attached to the report of a fleet of warships steaming along the Irish coast to the entrance to the Baltic from the North Sea and the assumption that it is a British edition, there is every reason to expect some use in the British naval program and greater activity in place of watchful waiting for the German fleet to come out and get smashed.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

WOMEN STAND THE BRUNT OF WAR.

It is not only the women of the Red Cross Association who are proving themselves to be relieving actors on the line of battle, but the women who are left at home are also taking up the work of men. Women of France have taken the places of brothers, fathers and husbands in the vineyards and the wheat fields. Women of Paris have taken men's places in the stores, on the street cars and even doing police service. Women in Germany have stepped in where the men have stepped out, and the business of Berlin proceeds as it did before the outbreak of the war.—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

DON'T WANT THE EATS CUT OFF.

The movement to call off all blankets in this country while the war rages in Europe is not well founded. We can afford to rejoice over the blessings of peace and festivity might help to dispel some of the gloom that the horrors of the conflict spreads. But if the plan were put on the basis of economy and the prevention of needless expenditures during a severe financial period, it would be a wholly different matter.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

BURDEN WHERE IT BELONGS.

When a man abuses his wife or family so as to incur a legal penalty he is usually locked up in jail. That is none too bad for him, but it is more than a dependent wife and children deserve. He can not earn anything for their support in jail, consequently they suffer probably more than if he had not been molested in his abuses by the law.

Wisconsin has visualized its recognition of this inequality by the enactment of a law that compels such a man to work for the support of his family instead of lying idle in prison. Here, for example is a man convicted of attacking his wife. The State sets him at work at wages, all of which are turned over to the wife, by whom in reality, the man is virtually employed for the time being. Should he violate the terms of his employment he will be subject to a penitentiary sentence. That, to be sure, would end his wage-earning. But what man with common sense is going to violate such conditions with the penitentiary staring him in the face?

Put it down, if you will, as another of Wisconsin's frank laws, you may not deny that it tends to place the burden where it belongs—on the rascal of a man, instead of his innocent wife and family.—Omaha Bee.

Emperor Bill is the sure-enough bull in the European china shop.

That 18,000 majority by which Gov. Willson carried the State just a few years ago, is an ugly scarecrow on the thorny road of Kentucky Democracy.

Secretary Harry F. Smith, of the Board of Park Commissioners, knows a lot about doctors.

Harry says that at 3 o'clock one morning a doctor was awakened from a comfortable bed to answer an urgent call at the bedside of a patient, twelve miles distant. The weather was bitter cold and the physician was almost frozen when he reached the sick man.

He was surprised to find the sufferer up and dressed and walking the floor.

"What's the trouble?" he asked.

"Oh, doctor, I don't know," said the patient.

"Are you suffering pain?"

"No, but I awakened with a feeling somehow that I was going to die soon and I sent for you."

The physician looked grim. "Let me feel your pulse," he commanded.

The patient extended his arm.

"Show me your tongue,"

He opened his mouth and stuck out his tongue.

"Have you a lawyer?"

The patient paled. "Oh, doctor," he whimpered. "You don't think that I should make any will?"

"Send for your lawyer. Have you a minister?"

"Y-yes, do you think I need him too, doctor?"

"Send for him. Have you an undertaker?"

The patient was visibly trembling. "Oh, doctor," he moaned. "Do you think that the end then is so near?"

"Not by a thundering sight," exploded the physician.

"but I don't like to feel that I am the only fool in the county."—Louisville Times.

BAD OPERATION AVOIDED

By Timely Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Sowers' Own Statement.

Hodgdon, Maine.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgdon, Maine.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

TRENCHES ARE FULL

Of Polluted Water in Which Are Corpses, Roussett Asserts.

Paris.—Colonel Roussett, famous military expert, writing in La Liberte, says:

"The character of the fighting in France is about to undergo a change. The trenches are full of polluted water beneath which lie heaps of rotten corpses.

"The Germans are being forced to quit the trenches and the great battle therefore is about to assume a more open character."

SIX THOUSAND HOMES

In Brown County, Ohio—More Than Half Farm Homes—Great Per Cent. Are Owned by Occupants.

Washington, D. C.—There are 6,218 homes in Brown county, Ohio. Of this number 3,768 are farm homes, 2,443 of the farm homes being owned by their occupants and are free of mortgage incumbrance. The mortgaged farm homes number 548. Renters occupy 1,067 farm homes in this county. Out of a total of 3,218 homes in the county 2,450 are urban homes. There are 1,358 urban homes owners in the county. Of this number 212 are mortgaged; 1,233 of the urban owned homes are free from incumbrance. There are 912 rented urban homes in the county.

The census enumerators were unable to secure data pertaining to the ownership of a small percentage of both rural and urban homes in this county.

A slow but steady improvement in the nation's foreign trade is seen by President Wilson in the government reports and private advices he has received.

GALBREATH TOO ILL

Paco Trial—Former Banker Suffering Nervous Trouble Preventing Ability To Concentrate.

(Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.)

Another postponement of the trial of former Banker Elmer E. Galbreath is now taken as certain. The case had been set for hearing at this time of the United States Court.

The doctors made their examination of Mr. Galbreath on the order of the District Attorney. The symptoms that they found are pronounced to be "psychomotor" in character, the explanation of which is that the trouble from which Mr. Galbreath is suffering is of a mental or nervous nature rather than bodily. As a result of it there is a lack of concentration and grasp, which leaves him unfitted to go through the ordeal of a trial.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR ORPHANS OF WAR TO BE CARRIED FREE.

Washington, Oct. 15.—American railroads may transport free of charge, if they decide to do so, gifts made by the children of the United States for presentation on Christmas Day to the children made orphans by the European war. This ruling was announced by the Interstate Commerce commission today, in connection with the plans of American newspapers to send a Christmas Ship abroad.

The commission made it clear that free transportation of such articles was entirely discretionary with the railroads.

"RED LETTER DAY"

Next Sunday in Third Street M. E. Church Sunday School—Annual Rally and Special Occasion.

Next Sunday will be a "Red Letter Day" with the Sunday School of the Third Street M. E. Church. It will be the annual Rally Day for which special preparation has been made. The church will be decorated in Harvest Home attire for the occasion. The rally services will begin at 9:30 a. m. with the regular session of the school at which time 200 are expected. The offering for the Board of Sunday Schools will be made at this service.

The banner given by the Board of Sunday Schools will be awarded to the class making the best offering and will be kept by that class for one year. The contest for this banner will be exciting. Promptly at 10:30 the school will march in a body to the auditorium where they will present the rally day program called "The Bugle Call." Following is the program:

Song—"The School"—Rally "Round the Banner."

Responsive Reading.

Song—"O Zion, Hasten, Thy Mission High Fulfilling."

Prayer by Pastor.

Response by choir and school—"Hear Thou My Prayer."

Welcome Words by Superintendent I. M. Lane.

Song—"God's Trumpet Wakes the Slumbering World."

Selection—"I Heard the Bugle Call."

"Golden Hour" class.

Selection—"The Bugle Watchwords"

"Live Wire" class.

Song—"Sound the Battle Cry."

Recitation—"My Friends"—Margaret Ashcraft.

Recitation—"Ten Little Fingers"—Edith Lital and Verna Hill.

Song—"Little Workers"—"Sunshine" and "Golden Hour" classes.

"The Bugle Question"—"The Lead ers" class.

Song—"Is it Nothing?"

Recitation—"Is it Nothing to You?"—"A Junior Boy."

"The Bugle Call for Benevolence"—The Pastor.

Public offering for Board of Sunday Schools.

Song—"Hail, the Voice of Jesus Calling."

Benediction.

Everyone is invited to this service. You will be interested to hear of the great work being done by the Board of Sunday Schools. It is one of the greatest institutions of the Methodist Church. Then, too, you will enjoy the program as presented by a real live Sunday School. Let every member of the church be in the Sunday School Sunday, and every member of the Sunday School be in church making this the best day of all.

MORE STRENGTH FOR OLD PEOPLE

Mrs. Hutchison—Eighty-One Years Old—Uses No Other Tonic but Vinol and Recommends It to Friends.

Greenville, S. C.—"It is with pleasure I tell others of the great benefit I have derived from Vinol, for the past several years. I am 81 years old and I find Vinol gives me strength, a healthy appetite and overcomes nervous disorders. Vinol is the only tonic reconstructor I have used for several years. I have recommended it to a great many of my friends and it has always proved satisfactory."—Mrs. M. A. HUTCHISON, Greenville, S. C.

Such cases as the above are constantly coming to our attention. If people in this vicinity only realized how Vinol invigorates old people we would not be able to supply the demand.

It is the tissue building, curative elements of the cod's liver, aided by the blood making strengthening properties of tonic iron contained in Vinol, that makes it so successful in building up strength for old people, delicate children and for all run-down conditions. Vinol is also a most successful remedy for chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis. If it fails to benefit any one who tries it we return your money.

WHY IS A COW BEAT?

(Augusta Chronicle.)

C. Z. Overturn, living on the Dover pike, near Augusta, brought a cow beat to town one day last week, placing it on exhibition at Wolfe & Work's, which is the largest we have seen. The best weighs 13 pounds and five ounces, and is 27 1/2 inches long and 21 in circumference. Can anyone in the county beat this?
